

I Am A Woman of Worth

I know who I am and I am a woman of worth.
I can see how God sees me and I am valuable.

I am a daughter of the Most High King.

I am created in His image.

I am the work of His Hand.

He knows everything about me and I trust Him
to complete this good work in me.

I am dearly loved, His treasured possession,
and set apart for a noble purpose.

I am an heir to His Throne
with a divine destiny to fulfill.

By His Grace, I pledge to be all He wants me to be, that I might be a good representation of the One who created me.

I am special, unique, and important - to God and those He puts in my path.

I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

He has a plan for me.

Therefore, I will jealously guard my mind
from anything that would defile this knowledge, and I will glorify Jesus Christ.