

My Life is Precious and Full of Meaning

I love my life!

In fact, I love everything about my life because I choose to look through optimistic eyes.

I find ways to infuse joy into every situation.

Even when life seems to be monotonous,

I uncover ways to create new paths.

I seize every opportunity to create adventure.

I look for the silver lining in every challenge.

I make the best of each day.

My life counts. My life is significant.

I have been created with passion and purpose; therefore I live passionately and purposefully.

I greet each day with excitement and gratitude, knowing great things will come out of my life.

No one else could ever fill my place.

I have talents and gifts that are important to the world.

There is only one me. There is only one person with my fingerprint.

I can make a difference in the world.

Today, I understand my value.
